Acknowledgments

On behalf of the Nutrition UP 65 team, I am pleased to express our gratitude to all those who contributed to this process, that lasted a short period of 25 months, since April 2015.

Firstly, we would like to acknowledge the funding received from the EEA Grants Program - Public Health Initiatives from Iceland, Liechtenstein, and Norway, which gave us the opportunity to develop such an ambitious project.

We would also like thank to Núcleo Executivo do Operador de Programa from PTO6 from ACSS, for all the timely and excellent support.

This Project is the product of an incalculable teamwork and collaboration from diverse entities:

- a warm thanks to our project partners, Dr. Graça Ferro of the Local Health Unit of Alto Minho and Professor Cátia Martins of the Norway University of Science and Technology (NTNU), for all the scientific and technical involvement;
- to the company Daily Spin, to all the interviewers of this project, we thank all the care in data collection and the very professional and fruitful interaction;
- to Doutora Maria Correia, from Laboratory Labco, where biologic samples were analysed, we thank all the support and all the helpful explanations;
- to Fundação Engenheiro António de Almeida we acknowledge the gracious lending of the space for Nutrition UP 65 Conference;

- to Câmara Municipal do Porto for kindly offering the Almeida Garrett public library for the Nutrition UP 65 Closing Meeting;
- to Dr. António Meireles from Department of International Projects of the Rectory of the University of Porto, we acknowledge all his impressive support and dedication to the Project's financial administrative process;
- we also thank all the tireless work the Financial Department of FCNAUP (Dr. Judite Oliveira, Dr. Carlos Firmino and Dr. Andreia Gonçalves), to the Human Resources Department of FCNAUP and to the Rectory of the University of Porto, the Purchasing Office and the Communication Office;
- we are grateful to all the colleagues who have held training sessions and all FCNAUP volunteers, the industrious work of disseminating the messages of this project to health professionals, meal producers, caregivers and to the elder people throughout our country. We would also like to thank all the colleagues who have been so enthusiastic about this educational arm of the Project and who are replicating it, all over the country;
- to our colleague, Prof. Pedro Graça, Director of the National Program for the Promotion of Healthy Diet, thank you for the incentive to carry out this project and for all relevant insights;
- to the Vice-director of FCNAUP, Prof. Vitor Hugo Teixeira, we thank all the careful and diligent review of the thousands of lines of administrative documents of this project.
- we thank the Ph.D. students working on this Project, Drs. Joana Mendes and Ana Rita Santos, for their dedication and collaboration. I would also like to thank the students who carried out their Master's thesis in this project, Drs. Sofia Cardoso, Sara Moreira, and Ana Margarida Pimentel, for exploring additional hypotheses not initially foreseen. We also acknowledge the interest of the FCNAUP students Beatriz Teixeira and Sandra Cardoso in working with the Project data during their 4th year traineeship;

- a very special warm thank to the interviewers Sandra Gomes, Filipa Graça, Liliana Ferreira, Rita Fernandes, Paula Correia, Filipa Morgado, and Ana Moura, for all the effort put in this huge work;
- we have a very special word for our research assistants. To Drs. Rita Guerra, Ana Sofia Sousa, Rui Valdivieso and Luísa Álvares, we thank you for all the effort, commitment and extraordinary contribution that you have made to this Project, from the scientific and technical quality to the way the project has been communicated. Thank you all also for your good mood, which has fed our days of work! And a very special acknowledgment for your uncountable help, even after the finishing of this project;
- we thank the other FCNAUP colleagues and to all the administrative staff, for all their support during this period;
- we have a final word of appreciation to all 1500 participants of the Nutrition UP 65 study the huge contribution to this innovative research.

A very special word to my fellow researchers of this project, Pedro Moreira, Nuno Borges, Alejandro Santos, Claudia Afonso and Patrícia Padrão: thanks for the magnificent input you all gave to this project and also the important, fruitful and pleasant moments of work!
